

Missouri Division of Professional Registration

Testing Update

ACCOUNTANCY

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

ACUPUNCTURISTS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

APELSLA

Testing has resumed throughout the state for all professions (Architects, Professional Engineers, Professional Land Surveyors, and Professional Landscape Architects) with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

BEHAVIOR ANALYSTS

Testing has resumed throughout the state.

CHIROPRACTORS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

Part I Exams have been postponed to August 13-18, 2020.

Part II Exams were not affected.

Part III Exams and PHT Exams have been postponed to July 18 and 19, 2020.

Part IV Exams have been postponed to July 10-12, 2020

COSMETOLOGY AND BARBERS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

COUNSELORS

Testing has resumed throughout the state. The current testing window has been extended through August 31, 2020.

DENTISTS AND DENTAL HYGIENISTS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

EMBALMERS AND FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Testing has resumed throughout the state.

GEOLOGISTS

The October national exam will be held as scheduled while adhering to social distancing protocols.

HEALING ARTS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

HEARING INSTRUMENT SPECIALISTS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

INTERPRETERS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

MARRITAL AND FAMILY THERAPISTS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols. The current testing window has been expanded for the rest of 2020.

MASSAGE THERAPISTS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

NURSING

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPISTS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

OPTOMETRY

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

PHARMACY

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

PODIATRY

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

PRIVATE INVESTIGATORS

Testing has resumed.

PSYCHOLOGISTS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

REAL ESTATE APPRAISERS

Testing has resumed in Cape Girardeau, Carthage, Fulton, Gladstone, Jefferson City, Kansas City, Saint Peters, and West Plains with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

REAL ESTATE

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols. The deadline to complete the MREC test and submit the applications packet to the Missouri Real Estate Commission has been extended to August 31, 2020.

RESPIRATORY CARE

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

SOCIAL WORKERS

Testing has resumed throughout the state.

VETERINARIANS AND VETERINARY TECHNICIANS

Testing has resumed throughout the state with limited space at testing sites to ensure proper social distancing protocols.

